

State of Louisiana
 City of New Orleans } I, Mary Lee Black, wife of John W. Black, the grantee in the within and foregoing deed and with whom I have joined in the execution of the same, do hereby freely, relinquish and renounce, unto L. G. Mayo, the grantee in the said deed, and to his heirs and assigns, all my right title and interest of in and to donor, in the lands conveyed in the said deed, and do hereby declare, that my aforesaid relinquishment, and renunciation of above, is made by me freely and voluntarily, and without any fear, constraint or apprehensions, of or from my said husband, and separate and apart, from him.
 In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this first day of July A.D. 1871.
 M. L. Black

Attest
 Geo. J. May
 Edward M. Hunt.

State of Louisiana
 City of New Orleans } Be it known, that on this first day of July A.D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy one, before me the undersigned a Commissioner of the State of Florida in and for the State of Louisiana, duly commissioned, and authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds and to administer oaths and affirmations, to be used as recited in said State of Florida, personally appeared, John W. Black, to me personally known, and known to me to be individual named in and who executed the foregoing conveyance and acknowledged, that he executed the same, as his setand deed, for the considerations, purposes and uses therein mentioned.
 In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal as Commissioner aforesaid at my office in the said City of New Orleans, the day and year above written.

Andrew H. Lee, Jr.
 Commissioner

State of Louisiana
 City of New Orleans } Be it known, that on the twenty second day of September A.D. eighteen hundred and seventy one, before me, Andrew H. Lee, Jr. a Commissioner of the State of Florida, duly appointed, commissioned and authorized in and for the City & State aforesaid, personally appeared, the within named Mary Lee Black, wife of John W. Black, to me personally known and known to me to be the individual, named in and who executed the foregoing conveyance, and relinquishment of donor, and advised her that she executed the same, as her voluntarily set and deed, for the uses, considerations and purposes therein expressed.
 Now the said Mary Lee Black, being by me duly sworn separate and apart, from her and out of hearing and sight of her said husband, acknowledged, that the execution of said
