

therein named at Pensacola Florida duly sold at Public Auction, and at such sale the same were purchased by E D Randolph as trustee, and thereafter in the said Circuit Court of the United States a decree was entered in said case confirming said sale and directing the Master Commissioner to deliver to the said purchaser or his assigns, or his nominee or nominees, a conveyance, in due form of the premises so sold, and thereafter the said purchaser duly assigned his bid into the said Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and did request the said Master Commissioner to execute a conveyance to the said Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company and the said premises were on the 12th day of June 1891 duly so conveyed.

And whereas the said Edmund D Randolph as trustee under the said second mortgage was by said decree authorized and directed to execute and deliver under the direction of the said Master Commissioner a conveyance by way of confirmation and just assurance of title to the said purchaser or purchaser, his assigns or his assigns of all and singular the mortgaged premises and property, and every part and parcel thereof, every kind and description, and wherever situated therein directed to be sold by the Master Commissioner, subject to the said first mortgage and the said Land Grant Mortgage, as aforesaid. And the said Master Commissioner has pursuant to said decree given direction that this conveyance be executed and delivered, and settled and approved in the form and mode hereunto thereof shown. Therefore this Indenture Witnesseth that in consideration of the premises and the sum of One Dollar to him paid by the grantor above named, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said Edmund D Randolph does hereby grant, bargain, sell, convey and confirm unto the said Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, the Railroad of the Pensacola and Atlantic Railroad Company, located and constructed from Pensacola in the State of Florida to a junction with the railroad formerly known as the Jacksonville Pensacola and Mobile Railroad in said State and upon all the other property of the Company used in connection therewith as part thereof and all and singular its rights,
