do alienate any and all homes hind right whatever that we may have in, and to said premises. And we the said Delia F. & W. E. Cates (the said property being the separate property of said Delia F. Cates) do for ourselves, our heirs, Executors and administrators, covenant to warrant and the title to the said property and defend the same unto the said Joseph Ellinger his heirs and assigns against the lawful claims and demands of any and all persons whomsoever,

And the above instrument is intended as a mortgage, the conditions of which are these, upon whereas the said Ellinger has this day loaned to said Delia F. Cates $600.00 for which amount the said Delia F. & W. E. Cates have executed unto him this joint and several promissory note of even date herewith, payable twelve (12) months after date, with eight (8) per cent interest per annum from date: Now then this if the said Delia F. & W. E. Cates or either of them shall well and truly pay said note when the same becomes due according to the true intent thereof, together with the interest then this instrument to be null and void, else to be of full force and virtue, And it is hereby agreed and understood that in the event of the foreclosure of this instrument of this mortgage, the said Delia F. & W. E. Cates shall pay unto said Ellinger, all Costs and reasonable Atty's fee of such proceedings, the same to be included with, and Covered by this mortgage.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 1st day of June A.D. 1892
