Mr. Eugene Sanders,
Chief Clerk, Comptroller's Office,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Sanders:

I have a peculiar favor to ask of you. My grandfather, Samuel G. Culbertson, who died about 1917, was a Confederate pensioner. I should like very much to get all the information available about him at the time he made application for pension. At the time he made application he lived in Henderson County and later moved to Polk County and Shelby County. If you will give me this information at your convenience, I should appreciate it very much.

I notice where you are being mentioned for the position of Secretary to Dan Moody. I certainly hope you will be successful. It was my good pleasure to support him, and while I was county attorney of Henderson County, I wrote him soon after he was nominated attorney general urging him to make the race for governor.

If I can be of any assistance to you in this or any other connection, please call upon me.

Sincerely yours,

ABC:MMW

A. B. CULBERTSON, ASSISTANT TRUST OFFICER

Dear Sanders:

I thank you for your courtesy in the matter referred to you. However, I am certain the Pension Department is in error for I have assisted in the preparation of necessary papers several times for the collection of the confederate pension from the State of Texas. Samuel Green Culbertson, my grandfather, served in the 11th Mississippi Regiment but that is all the information I have relative to his service or those who served with him.

Will you be kind enough to refer this matter back to the Pension Department with the request that the matter be investigated further? I am troubling you with the matter because you have already had it on your desk. Otherwise I would write direct to that Department.

With regards and wishes of much joy for the approaching holiday season, I am,

Cordially and sincerely yours,

A. B. Culbertson
