I was living in Smith County, Texas, during the Civil war, and in company with Ansolum Davis (now dead) Bill Hamilton, of Tyler (deceased) Smith Lavender, deceased, who died in the Asylum, went from home to Company H, 34th Texas Cavalry, C.S.A. just before the Mansfield battle, with Gen. Banks. I was in that battle; ~~was joined~~ these parties had come home to get fresh horses, they having previously belonged to the same company. This company was commanded by Capt. Jim Warren.

I joined on a Courier line between Houston, Texas and Shreve-Port, La. I can not give date but it was about one week before the Mansfield battle. I give this information that the Commissioner of Pensions may be enabled to trace my service.
