Dear Sir:-

I am handing you an application of J. C. Monds that explains its self, except that you will note that the deposition of the lady was taken before this application was made; this occurred in this way: He had an application pending before the commissioners court, when the old law was repealed, ~~sxxx~~ and I had taken this proof, so when the new law went into effect, I had him make a new application, and just used the old deposition. Now, I have a deposition sent to the lady, which if returned, I will, also forward.
