Mr. Newman seems to be last survivor of his company and Regiment. He informed me that he had written to all of his old comrades to secure supporting affidavit but that they were all dead or their whereabouts unknown. Mr. Newman has his parole that was issued to him at the end of the war and several other papers of minor importance that proves conclusively that he did the services stated.

I took the matter up with the War Department at Washington D C for the reason there was no other remedy in this case and I sincerely hope that you will approve this application.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1862. It is a very long letter, and it contains a great deal of information about the state of the country at that time. It is a very important document, and it is one of the most interesting documents in the collection.
