Dear Sir -

Yrs 19th Inst, with contents, as stated, recd yesterday. I immediately applied to the Tax Collector of both County & City, for Mrs R rendition for 1914 - It appeared on the City Rolls, but by mistake or oversight the rendition was not placed on the Co rolls. Therefore I could not truthfully file out the certificate attached to the application as to the application, but instead add one to suit the road grade. I also send rendition from city rolls, both renditions were made alike and at the same time but Co assessor failed to get his rendition on the rolls. If this is fatal it cannot be helped. The property is as shown, I would be glad if you could drop in Athens and see her holdings - will appreciate if you can give her this little help towards what she is justly entitled, in case find applications renditions.
