Mrs. J.M. Thompson,

La Rue, Texas.

Dear Madam:-

I am in receipt of your application for Confederate Pension, but cannot approve same since it is shown that you were married to Mr. J.M. Thompson, Oct. 4, 1915.

Under present Pension laws of this State, a widow applicant must show that she was married prior to Jan. 1, 1910 to the Veteran on whose service record Pension is applied for. See Article 6205, R.C.S. 1925.

I regret that I cannot approve your application at this time but same will be kept on file in this office and may be renewed at any time in the future should the Pension laws of this State be amended so as to permit approval of same.

Yours very truly,

KR/wpm.
