March 26th, 1904.

Hon. W. F. Newman,

County Judge Henderson Co.,

Athens, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

In the matter of application of T. J. Walker for pension, whose claim for pension is based on service in Co. F, 26th Reg. Miss. Infantry from Aug. 1861 to May 1865, I have to state that the original muster rolls show that he was discharged from service September 26th, 1862 while in the hospital, thus indicating service of little more than twelve months, and not four years as claimed. If he served in another Command after his discharge, it should have been so stated in his application.

Very Respectfully,

Acting Comptroller.
