

Post Office Department.

HORACE MAYNARD,

Postmaster General of the United States of America.

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, On the 24th day of December, 1880, George H. Pridiaux was appointed Postmaster at Jones Prairie, in the County of Milam, State of Texas, and whereas he did, on the 20th day of January, 1881, execute a Bond, and has taken the Oath of Office, as required by law:

Now know ye, That confiding in the integrity, ability, and punctuality of the said George H. Pridiaux I do commission him a Postmaster, authorized to execute the duties of that Office at Jones Prairie aforesaid, according to the Laws of the United States and the Regulations of the Post Office Department: To hold the said Office of Postmaster, with all the powers, privileges, and emoluments to the same belonging, during the pleasure of the Postmaster General of the United States.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Post Office Department to be affixed, at Washington City, the twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifth.

Horace Maynard
Postmaster General.
